| Are you holding a grudge? About?

Yes, I have grudge on my disability which makes me feel useless on myself... I grudge on my parents who couldn't understand and accept my relationship... I grudge on my pradee who couldn't be with me... I grudge on my bestie prici who couldn't be with me when I needed her the most... More than everything I grudge on my God with whom I kept all my believe, hope and faith and now I grudge on myself for not being good in and with anything and anybody... 💔
